THE CRUCIBLE TURNS 50 ... BUT DOESN'T GROW OLD
The Gamm hosts post-production panel and reception

PAWTUCKET, RI (September 7, 2003) — The Sandra Feinstein-Gamm Theatre is pleased to host a FREE panel discussion following the Sept. 14 matinee of Arthur Miller's The Crucible. Audience members, guided by our expert panelists, will explore why this American classic, penned in response to the anti-Communist hysteria of the 1950s, remains relevant and riveting in the 21st century.

Host: Tony Estrella, Artistic Director, The Gamm Theatre

Moderator: Sam Coale, Professor of English, Wheaton College

Panelists:

Prof. Maureen Moakley, Chair of Political Science, University of Rhode Island

Prof. Robert Mathiesen, Professor of Slavic Languages, Brown University

Jennifer Madden, Doctoral Candidate (theater history/performance studies), Brown University

Date: Sunday, September 14

Time: Approx. 4:45 p.m. (follows 2 p.m. matinee)

Place: Br. Michael McKenery Arts Center Theatre, La Salle Academy

About The Gamm

Founded in 1984 as Alias Stage, the nonprofit Sandra Feinstein-Gamm Theatre performs great works of the classic and modern theater in an intimate setting that fosters the vital relationship between author, actor and audience. As the cornerstone of The Arts Exchange at the Pawtucket Armory, The Gamm seeks to engage and enrich the community through affordable entertainment and educational programming. NBC 10 is The Gamm's season sponsor.
