COMMUNITY AND COMEDY FOR THE BORED AND LONELY

Gamm Theater Offers Half-price Tickets to Super Bowl Sunday Performance

PAWTUCKET, RI (January 31, 2005) — The Sandra Feinstein-Gamm Theatre (The Gamm) is offering half-price tickets for the February 6 Super Bowl Sunday performance of *Red Noses to the abandoned friends and family of football fans. Just $10 (regularly $21) buys a theater experience to rival the most exciting of spectator sports. Peter Barnes' award-winning black comedy about the Black Death combines wicked laughter and heartbreaking beauty in one of the most original and daring plays of the modern theater.

Play Synopsis

1348. Auxerre, France. Plague ravages Europe and "one-third of Christendom lies under sod." The pope trembles in fear inside a glass-walled chamber in Avignon, while flagellants, lepers and scavengers ravage the countryside. Enter a desperate epileptic monk and his ragtag band of blind jugglers, one-legged dancers, disgraced nuns and others, all on a sacred mission to bring cheap laughs to the suffering masses.

*Winner of the 1985 Olivier Award for Best Play.***
