

sandra feinstein-

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information contact:

Gail Hulbert, Communications & Marketing Director
(401) 723-4266 or gail@gammtheatre.org

THE GAMM HELPS AMERICAN RED CROSS BRING RELIEF TO VICTIMS OF HURRICANE KATRINA

PAWTUCKET, RI (September 9, 2005) — The Sandra Feinstein-Gamm Theatre (The Gamm) is pleased to support the American Red Cross in its efforts to bring much-needed relief to the victims of Hurricane Katrina. During the month of September, and possibly beyond, the public is encouraged to donate material goods to be distributed by the Red Cross to evacuees being housed temporarily in Rhode Island and Massachusetts. Needed items include: diapers, blankets, toys, books, puzzles, new underwear, toiletries, (toothbrushes, shampoo, make-up, cologne, etc.) and non-perishable food.

With a million Americans now homeless, the need for basic, everyday items is overwhelming. Many of the hurricane victims left their homes with only the clothes on their backs. The donation of these quality-of-life items will help restore a sense of normalcy and dignity to so many shattered lives.

Individuals are asked to leave items in a bin inside the theater's lobby at 172 Exchange St., Pawtucket, weekdays during regular business hours and until show time on performance days; or on weekends from noon until show time.

Please call (401) 723-4266 with any questions about the collection. The Gamm heartily thanks the public for assisting in the Red Cross relief effort.

About The Gamm

Founded in 1984 as Alias Stage, the nonprofit Sandra Feinstein-Gamm Theatre performs great works of the classic and modern theater in an intimate setting that fosters the vital relationship between author, actor and audience. As the cornerstone of the Arts Exchange at the Pawtucket Armory, The Gamm seeks to engage and enrich the community through affordable entertainment and educational programming. NBC 10 is The Gamm's season sponsor.

-end-